Rates apply to SIAM publications dated
January 1, 2026 through December 31, 2026

SIAM News is an online and print tabloid-size newsjournal. The subscribers—applied mathematicians and computational scientists, data scientists, computer scientists, engineers, physicists, and statisticians—are employed in industry, government, labs, and academia. In addition, each of SIAM's almost 500 academic members and corporate members receive multiple subscriptions to SIAM News.

Subscribers count on SIAM News to keep them up to date on issues affecting the applied and computational mathematics community. Articles include reports of progress and breakthroughs in research; technical overviews written by experts in a wide range of disciplines; news about people, university programs, legislation, and funding affecting the mathematical sciences community; and much more. Readers consistently describe SIAM News advertisements as an important source of information on software, books, and jobs.

Print Circulation 8,000*

See page five (5) for online advertising. Actual readership is significantly higher due to library and pass-along readership.

Recruitment Advertising

Classified (line ads)

Classified advertisements are recruitment ads and reserved for professional positions. Classified line advertisements are placed in SIAM News. The print ad would be posted online coinciding with when the issue mails and will remain posted for one month for each issue placement booked. Classified ads may be edited to conform to SIAM News format. Fee is based on word count. Submit your ad via e-mail to marketing@siam.org; please include the text for the ad, the issue(s) in which the ad should be placed, and the complete billing address, phone number, and contact person.

Rate: $3.65 per word ($490 minimum)

Classified Display

Classified display advertisements are for professional opportunities that appear on the classified advertising pages of SIAM News. Classified advertisements placed in SIAM News can also be accessed through SIAM's website beginning with the date the issue is mailed. There is no extra charge for posting to the web; ads remain on the web for one month.

Sizes are based on a four-column format. One classified column inch equals 2.1875" x 1".

- A two-column ad is 4.625" x 1"
- A three-column ad is 7.125" x 1"
- A four-column ad is 9.5" x 1"

Rate: $140 per column inch (rounded up to the nearest full inch)

Announcements

An announcement is any advertisement for an event, a new product, or a new policy. All announcements placed in SIAM News can also be accessed through SIAM's website beginning with the date the issue is mailed. There is no extra charge for posting to the web; ads remain on the web for one month.

Rate: $2.50 per word ($385 minimum)

Building Momentum: Why Membership Growth and Community Matter for SIAM Members

By Paula Miller

SIAM's 2019 membership year was a record-breaking one, with over 1,000 new members joining the Society. This growth is a testament to the value of SIAM's resources and the strong community that has built up over the years. As we look ahead to 2020, it's clear that membership growth and community engagement will continue to be key factors in SIAM's success.

One of the most exciting aspects of being a SIAM member is the access to a wide range of resources, including journals, news, and networking opportunities. These resources are designed to help members stay up-to-date on the latest in applied mathematics and to connect with other professionals in the field. By joining SIAM, you're not just getting a subscription to our journals—you're becoming part of a vibrant community that shares a common passion for the field.

Another key benefit of SIAM membership is the opportunity to participate in a variety of events and activities. From conferences and workshops to webinars and online courses, SIAM offers a wealth of opportunities for members to learn, grow, and connect. These events are designed to provide members with the latest in research and practice, as well as a chance to share their own work and experiences with others in the field.

Finally, one of the most important reasons to join SIAM is the sense of community that comes with being a member. SIAM is a Society, and as such, we value the input and contributions of all our members. Whether you're a seasoned professional or a newcomer to the field, you'll find a supportive and welcoming community at SIAM. We encourage you to join us today and become part of the SIAM family.
